

Quilt raffle for senior center project

machine quilted by Donna Tastad. Tastad donated the batting, as well as her time and expertise. The quilt is on display at the center. The drawing for the quilt will be held at the annual Senior Prom — a fundraiser for the senior center — on Friday, June 3. You do not need to be present to win. Proceeds from the raffle will go to help put in new flooring at the center. (Photo by Lori Tepinski)
